Subject: SFO Hot Issues

ROS - First off, welcome back (I hope) and I do hope your health is back on the mend. You know what it is like with Tim - I have no idea if you're on your death bed, or had an accident and broke your leg, or whatever. Now to SFO - Andy Richards is the District Manager for SFO; I have know Andy for many years and in fact he was the 540 Manager here in the RO for a period of time. I talked to Andy and told him that you would be taking over, and I will introduce you two telephonically when we can. As an aside, Andy will be my technical advisor in the [redacted] arbitration at SJC on 4/14 & 4/15.

Andy does have one other BIG issue, that for a myriad of excuses, I have been dragging my feet on. It is the Jeffrey LEWIS case; we can discuss it when I return on Thursday; in the meantime, I have put the ROI on Lewis in your in-box. This "Slime Ball" has been with the Agency for 20 plus years and has never certified at a facility. If you want to get an "unbiased" take on Lewis, ask Glen, as Lewis was a witness at an arbitration that Glen had two weeks ago. You can even talk to Gwen about him; GM is normally very mild mannered (don't tell her I said that), and one afternoon probably late '06, Lewis called her, and he brought out the worse in her; you could also talk to Cindy about him although she never really "encountered" him. He has also pissed off Security (Giles) and Medical, where Goodman threatened to get a restraining order against him.

A little background since and B4 the ROI. After his tirade at the tower, they placed Lewis on Admin Leave and then LWOP for a period and finally AWOL. Medical pulled his clearance after his psychologist report was received, but for whatever reason, the psychologist changed his mind. Goodman did not want to return his clearance, and in fact would not have done so if he were not ordered to do so. Ergo, his medical clearance was restored on 1/10/08; a copy of that is also in your in-basket.

Sooooo - where are we now. Andy Richards is taking NO BS from Lewis; in fact as of now, if you were to get a call from Lewis, tell him to talk to Andy. Now what Andy wants us to do, and this is where I have been very negligent on [redacted] I assume right now that Lewis is back on Admin Leave, but I may be wrong here.

So what I would like you to do here till I get back is review the ROI and if need be, talk to Andy. I may see him on Monday, and definitely on the 14th & 15th, and I am sure we will be talking to Lewis.

THANKS for you help and again, I hope you're feeling better. I will call from the Bay area. dick
