FAA just appointed its latest advocate for this case on Friday and I sent her an email asking that we go with the arbitrator who was our 3rd pick (Lindauer). I haven't heard back yet, but I will give her another call this morning.

Subject: Arbitration (Jeff Lewis constructive suspension case)

The FAA has decided to reassign the arbitration to a different FAA advocate. He is supposed to contact me within the next day or so. (I don't know who it is yet.)

Once it's reassigned, we will select a new arbitrator and get hearing dates nailed down (again).

Sorry about the delays. As you know, we had picked one arbitrator (Winograd) who couldn't give us dates until February next year. We then went with Rader, and she broke her leg and had to withdraw. I was hoping we could use the third top choice (Lindauer), but FAA's advocate has now been switched before we could resolve that. Hopefully we can still use him and get dates quickly.
