

Date: Thu, 28 Jun 2007 17:27:04 -0700 (PDT)
From: "Jeff Lewis" <lsjef@yahoo.com>
Subject: Time to clean up this mess, don't you think?
To: Dick.Fossier@faa.gov

Hi Dick,

I have essentially no idea what the FAA is doing as regards my situation. What makes it even more troubling (aside from the fact I am involuntarily burning up all my sick leave) is that there has been a complete lack of documentation from you, Jason, the Flight Surgeon -- from all in the FAA -- which denies me effective and efficient legal recourse. I hope you can remedy this without delay.

Please advise the following:

1. what exactly is the "charge" or claim against me...the basis for my presently continuing to be in an involuntary sick leave status?
2. what is the status of the Accountability Board investigation from February (please note I have received no "periodic feedback" in over three months)?
3. when/how may I obtain a copy of the Report of Investigation related to the interview I did at LVK ATCT on 3/27/2007 (over three months ago)?

Hope to hear from you ASAP. Live in peace...

Jeff

Lewis-FAA Case
8/2012 FLRA filing
Ex. # 15