Allegation Description:
[Handwritten text redacted]

Contractor, ___________________________ forwarded to the Accountability Board a letter addressed to the Acting Administrator and the Chief Counsel in which ___________________________ makes several allegations against ___________________________. Most of the allegations stem from ___________________________ efforts to anonymously report certain inspection issues regarding a Cessna 150 registered as N7114RT. ___________________________ alleges that ___________________________ referred to ___________________________ for making the report as "another black agitator just like that other black agitator at the ___________________________" and breached "the anonymity" ___________________________ expected when ___________________________ reported the matter to the ___________________________.
