Remarks

The security investigation could not identify who placed the cable around the "No Fear" poster. The SSC manager met with all employees to discuss the allegation including the RF cable which was removed from the wall by management. The investigation also revealed that no individual was identified regarding the posting of the note in the reporting party's locker. No further action will be taken.

Coordinated with AHR.

Allegation Description:
[Redacted], Maintenance Technician, reported that someone placed what appeared to be a hangman's noose made from a RF cable around a "No Fear Act" memo that was posted on the wall in the locker and break room. [Redacted] interpreted the message to mean, "If you file a racial complaint you hang yourself." [Redacted] also reported that someone taped an offensive note entitled, "A Prayer For The Stressed" in. [Redacted] personal locker.

A photo copy of the hangman's noose and the offensive note have been provided to management.
